Worksheet Ten:

Interview an Entrepreneur

Worksheet 10

Identify, contact, and interview the entrepreneur; reflect on the entrepreneur engagement experience; and share lessons, recommendations, and feedback.

Worksheet 10.1

In this section, your task is to interview a entrepreneur in your neighbourhood and explore their understanding of entrepreneurship. Through this interview, you will gain insights into the challenges and opportunities that come with starting and running a business.

Step 1:

Identify an entrepreneur in your neighbourhood whom you would like to interview. You can use various resources such as social media, local business directories, or word of mouth to find them.

Step 2:

Contact the entrepreneur and request an interview. You can do this via email, phone call, or in-person visit. Explain the purpose of the interview, the time required, and the expected outcomes.

Step 3:

Prepare a set of questions for the interview. This will help you to focus the conversation and ensure that you cover all the essential aspects of entrepreneurship. Some potential questions might include:

- What inspired you to start your business?
- What are some of the biggest challenges you faced when starting your business?
- How did you overcome these challenges?
- What has been your most successful business venture so far, and why?
- What advice would you give to someone who wants to start their own business?

Step 4:

Conduct the interview. This can be done in-person, over the phone, or via video conferencing. Make sure to record the conversation with the entrepreneur's permission.

Step 5:

Analyze the data collected during the interview. This can be done by reviewing the recording, taking notes, and summarizing the key findings.

Step 6:

Reflect on the insights gained from the interview. This can be done individually or as a group. Consider the challenges and opportunities faced by entrepreneurs and how they impact the local economy.

Step 7:

Write a report summarizing the interview and your reflections. This can be done in the form of a written essay, a presentation, or a video. Make sure to include key takeaways from the interview and any recommendations for aspiring entrepreneurs.
